THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL

July 21, 1966

Miss Vivian Gardner
1740 "P" Street, N. W.
Washington, D. C. 20036

Dear Vivian:

Thanks for sending the books, but especially for including the note.

I have read several reviews of the book, but I don't believe we used one. I'll inquire from Les Cross, the book editor. I sent the book itself to Lindsay Hoben, The Journal editor, thinking he might want to dip into it while convalescing in the hospital.

Yes, Washington is a rough place these days--exciting, but rough. I like to be there, but not for long periods.

Best regards,

AS:mar

Arville Schaleben
Associate Editor